Horse Thief Killed.

Five Horses and Four Mules Stolen—The Pursuit Ends in a Lively Skirmish and the Death of George Harris.

[From the Eureka Republican]

From David Service and Alex. Beatty, of Eagle Valley, we glean the following particulars of the killing of a horse thief in that section. The story is related to us as it was told those gentlemen by the survivors of the shooting:

On the 13th of last December a party named George Harris stole five horses and four mules from Mr. Bagley, residing at Desert Station, near Pioche. Among the lot was a fine mare, valued at $1,000. It was three days before Mr. Bagley ascertained the direction the stock had taken. He then, in company with a man named Ben Tasker, started in pursuit and easily tracked the stock to Cherry Creek, in Nye county. At Jones' place, ten miles from Cherry Creek, the thief was just nine hours ahead of his pursuers.

George Harris had waited around the hills there, it is thought, for a mate named Mark Moore, who was quite notorious in Eureka some two years ago. But, Moore not arriving, Harris started alone with the stock. Bagley and Tasker pushed on with all speed and overtook Harris at McDonald's place, a mile and a half from Cherry Creek, who only had eight head of the stock. It is not known what became of the other.

The trio traveled in company for a short distance. In answer to a question as to where he came from, Harris said he was from the Black Hills and was on his way to Arizona. Harris was riding Mr. Bagley's fine mare, and the latter knew that if Harris got away on the mare there was not another animal to be had to catch him. He waited his chances and at the first opportunity he grabbed the mare's halter, jumped down from his horse, and told Mr. Harris to quietly give up. Harris slipped down on the opposite side from Bagley and shot, the ball passing through that person's coat from the front to the back. Meanwhile Tasker got down from his horse and shot Harris, the ball passing through Harris' legs. Harris returned the compliment, but Tasker had dodged behind his horse, and the bullet hit the horse, from which wound the animal, a fine grey mare, died soon after. After this last shot Harris broke for the sagebrush. Mr. Bagley and also Mr. Tasker claim that they did not want to kill him, and so they hailed him to give up his pistol; that they would only take him back to Pioche. Harris answered that if they wanted his pistol they would have to come and get it; that he was too sick to give it to them.

While Bagley and Tasker were attending to the stock they heard a shot in the direction Harris had taken, and upon looking that way with spy glasses, saw blood oozing from his forehead, and they made up their minds that he had shot himself. Bagley and Tasker did not go up to see, but retraced their steps, and when they arrived at McDonald's place informed him of what had happened. Mr. McDonald was alone at the time and could not leave his place to go up, but at the first opportunity Messrs. McDonald, Young, McCutcheon and Service went up and buried him. Those gentlemen found nothing of value on his body. There were tracks leading from the road to the body. Harris was lying on his right side, and held the handle of his pistol in the right hand, while the barrel was resting in his left and was aiming down the road, and was, in fact, in a most unnatural position for a dying man.

Harris was a young man, not over 23 years of age, complexion very light and was tall and thin.

Notes of the Day.

[S. F. Mail.]

The melancholy days have come—
The saddest every way;
The starving country editor
Gives his annual howl for pay.

The Post says: "Captain Fritz, of the Union Guard, has accepted J. W. Masher's challenge to shoot three members of his company." If these gentlemen want to have a duel, well and good; but, in the name of all that is holy, let them be prevented from ruthlessly murdering three, or even one member of our excellent State militia.

The colored baby show at Gilmore's Gardens, is a great success. In fact, the swarthy cherubs have New York by the wool. The ebony infant from a series of lovely pictures, and it is said that to see one take its bath and then get dried and powdered all over with charcoal dust, is of itself worth the entire amount of the admission fee.

One of the most beautiful sights of this holy season is to see our local millionaires recklessly investing in Jewsharps and mouth organs to present to their friends children. Riches so often change the heart of man, and we so frequently doubt the generosity of those whose wealth we respect that it restores our confidence once more in the goodness of the human heart to see Jim Flood offering an auctioneer six bits for a second hand rocking horse to present to the family of a poor widow, or to notice Michael Reese purchasing holiday story books at wholesale rates for cash. But, anyway, there's something so softening in the thoughts of Christmas that the stoniest heart melts before them and plunges into unconsidered expenditure without counting the cost.

A man was sentenced in Syracuse a few days ago, on his own confession of five forgeries, to fifteen years in prison. At the commencement of the rebellion he was a lawyer in good practice. He served in the army with credit as a Major. Afterward he was Treasurer of Onondaga county, and he went out of that office honorably. He subsequently became a drunkard, and now he is such a mental and physical wreck that he says life in prison will be better than the one he has latterly been living.

What Does It Mean.

The call for an extra session has again resumed upon the authority of W. W. Hobart, "our very efficient State Controller," according to the Enterprise. We do not desire to doubt the efficiency of Mr. Hobart, nor that in the present state of things an extra session could be made profitable to the people. But as to whether it will or not is entirely another question. And right here let us say what everybody knows, that the Enterprise in attempting to lay the present rate of taxation at the doors of those men who opposed the compromise, will utterly fail. The men who opposed the wrong attempted in a variety of ways to redeem the levy and were defeated at every turn by the bonanza faction. Although not possessing the strength to reduce the levy they were strong enough to prevent a passage of the compromise over the Governor's veto. It was then said triumphantly, in hearing of this writer, that they would have to call an extra session to provide ways and means for running the State government. Now, however, the same ones are calling for an extra session to reduce our revenues. A legislature called for that purpose might reduce the rate, and all would be well. It might also conclude that the best way to reduce the rate would be to compromise the bullion tax, and then all would be wrong.

The honest attempt to reduce the rate was made without Mr. Hobart's assistance, and we are inclined to think after his change of heart upon the bullion tax question, that much care should be exercised in calling this extra session, and none the less in view of the fact that Geo. W. Cassidy now appears to be our acting Governor. What does it all mean anyway? Has the making of issues commenced? Is it proposed to try the compromise again at an extra session? Or, is this merely an opening of the subject for use during the coming campaign?

However, if an extra session can be made beneficial to the tax payers of this State, it would be an easy matter to make such a fact apparent, and obtain the necessary call from Governor Bradley. We think it hardly possible however, that a great mistake might be committed, and it is well to look over the matter. At all events the responsibility for the extra session must rest just where it belongs, with the shameless advocates of the compromise bill.

Political Zephyrs.

The first gray streaks of dawn, preceding our general election, are now apparent in the smiles of would-be public servants, and the wind blows every way at once.

W. W. Hobart is coming into notice through his own unselfish exertions. Witness his communication to the Enterprise.

An extra session, as demanded by the advocates of compromise, is spoken of.

It is generally admitted that J. C. Hagerman is the coming Democratic candidate.

The Carson Appeal endorses John P. Jones, because he is no longer rich and stands in with Conkling.

The same paper does not believe that the Bonanza firm will contest for honors in the Senatorial fight.

The Eureka Republican points out that owing to the absence of Gov. Bradley and Lieutenant-Governor Adams, Speaker pro tempore Geo. W. Cassidy is really Governor of the State. Will he call an extra session?

J. P. Jones will come before the people solely upon merit and record.

The Appeal and Silver State do not doubt that Republican State Conventions will repudiate Hayes. We do not believe there is a newspaper man in Nevada who would lie, but these rumors may all be taken with a grain of allowance.

There are in Peru 86,000 Chinamen. The Chinaman in Peru is now accorded all the rights and privileges of native citizenship. The State is anxious for more of this class of workers, and a steamship line has been subsidized to import them as fast as possible. California would be only too happy to spare Peru 100,000 of her Chinese population.

Gough in the Assembly yesterday introduced an excellent bill to authorize the city of San Francisco to borrow $100,000 to be expended in improving various parks in that city, preference to be given to white laborers who have lived one year in San Francisco, and especially those who have families.

A more permanent provision is also contemplated in a bill for a Labor Bureau, introduced by Assemblyman Murphy. Five Commissioners are to be appointed by the Governor to hold office for two years, and there is to be a land department in connection therewith for the purpose of giving information concerning Government lands to locate, lands that may be purchased, etc. No Chinese are allowed to obtain a situation in the Bureau. The expenses of the Bureau are to be $12,000 a year. These bills or some of like importance should be passed without delay.

The Oakland Tribune is after Professor Gunning and says that it should have been after him before. The Tribune has no new points to offer, except an insinuation of its own profound scientific knowledge—a subject which has hitherto been overlooked, no doubt, by itself. It says all of these Nevada scientists are poor sticks, and Frank Stewart the worst, but consents to rank them all above Prof. Gunning. New we are not a particle interested in Prof. Gunning's welfare, but we have heard the present editor of the Tribune deliver himself of mental abortions, compared with which the delivery of Prof. Gunning would rank as a perfect creation. So we would advise the Tribune to sit down.

In San Francisco, theatre-goers have given up all hope of pleasure through the ear, and are now patronizing their eyes. Females with exaggerated legs are now the attraction, and the drama has taken on an anatomical shade before unknown. Three companies of leg-maniacs have obtained possession, and their gyrations are intently observed by the bald-headed bachelors of the bull and bear brigade. The engagement are profitable because costumes are unnecessary, and the medical colleges will shortly close their dissecting rooms and adjourn to the theatres where these animated corpses may be seen.

The Carson Appeal thinks that Chandler's assault upon Hayes is an outburst of honesty coming from a guileless politician, and directed against the most perfidious of Americans. The Enterprise thinks that the charge has acted like a boomerang, striking Mr. Chandler's aspirations full on the head, and leaving him the jest of the nation. Take your choice.

In the California Senate on Thursday last Pierson introduced a bill making it embezzlement for Trustees or custodians of stock on which loans are made to fail in returning the identical certificates pledged. This is to prevent the lending of stock and also the selling of certificates held in trust. The bill is rather lame, and its only effect will be to make Mr. Pierson stay at home in future.

The Scotsman tells us that by instructions of an American lady, Miss Thompson, resident in Edinburgh for some time, Messrs. Marshall, jewelers there, manufactured a set of horse-shoes of solid gold, at the cost of about $200; and lately a mare belonging to that lady was shod in the precious metal at the smithy of Prof. Baird, veterinary surgeon. The shoes are of the ordinary size and shape and the nails are also of gold. The animal was afterward inspected by Principal Walley and Prof. Baird who expressed their satisfaction with the work. The mare was then conveyed to Messrs. Moir's establishment and mounted and ridden about the yard by Miss Thompson. The animal was purchased for her present owner about two years ago, and since then has made a voyage across the Atlantic. Miss Thompson and her steed left Edinburgh for London, en route, it is supposed, for America. It is not stated whether apartments have been secured for her at Bloomingdale.

The official army register for 1878 shows that the militia of the United States available for military duty (unorganized) number 3,734,693. The general officers number 127; general staff officers, 1,017; regimental, field and staff officers, 1,240; company officers, 4,460. Total commissioned officers, 6,844; total non-commissioned officers, musicians, privates, etc., 86,853, or an aggregate of 93,696. Thirty States are reported as having militia organizations.

ENGLAND'S AFRICAN TROUBLE.—London, Jan. 3d.—The Times has an article on the South African situation, which concludes as follows: It is not pleasant to remember that Cetshwayo, Chief of the Zulus, according to those who know Zuland well, can put 40,000 well armed men into the field, and he may choose the moment for doing so when we have our hands more than full on the Caffrarian frontier. The Earl of Carnarvon said to the deputation of South African merchants that waited on him yesterday. "The Zulu King commands a very large, well armed and comparatively well disciplined force, and during the last few weeks has undoubtedly shown signs of temper which might bring about disaffection. He is constructing, or is proceeding to construct, in opposition to the warning of Sir Theophilus Shepstone, Secretary for Native Affairs of Natal, a fortified kraal in the disputed territory which abuts upon English soil, and I believe the mission which Shepstone sent to induce him to desist from this purpose has yet failed in doing so. Shepstone has asked for reinforcements, and they have been forwarded him, and I sincerely trust and believe that he will be most cautious in the use of the force which has been placed at his disposal for the purpose, I may say for his own safety. I am glad to see that fresh colonial levies are being used. They will render, I have no doubt, very valuable assistance."

THE HERALD'S EXPLORER.—NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The Herald's correspondent at Cairo, Egypt, telegraphs: Stanley called upon the Khedive yesterday and was very cordially received. The Khedive had a long conversation with Stanley about his Central African exploration and evinced a deep interest in the subject. He spoke to Stanley in the highest terms of praise of his courage and extraordinary perseverance in the arduous work for which he has become celebrated. Before Stanley took his leave the Khedive presented him with the decoration of a grand officer of the Medjidie, as a mark of his appreciation of his services. The Geographical society of Cairo last night entertained Stanley at a sumptuous banquet, at which many eminent men were present.

WHAT THE TAMMANY RING STOLE.—NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The Alderman's Committee for the investigation of Ring frauds held a secret session yesterday and adopted a report setting forth the results of their labors. They say that it has been clearly demonstrated that the city and county was despoiled of $30,000,000; yet only $376,000, after deducting expenses, have been recovered, and the thieves, with a single exception, have escaped any adequate punishment, and that some of them are flaunting their stolen wealth in the faces of honest citizens, to the demoralization of the community and the disgust of all right-minded men.

BOGARDUS WINS.—New York, January 4.—Captain Bogardus yesterday accomplished the feat of breaking 5,000 glass balls inside of 500 consecutive minutes, with 19 minutes and 25 seconds to spare. He broke 500 balls in 38 minutes and 40 seconds, 1,000 in 64 minutes and 40 seconds, 2,000 in 137 minutes and 10 seconds, 3,000 in 203 minutes and 15 seconds, 4,000 in 288 minutes and 35 seconds and 5,000 in 480 minutes and 35 seconds. He broke 100 balls in 5 minutes and 45 seconds, another 100 in 5 minutes and 35 seconds and another 100 in 5 minutes and 36 seconds.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe.—The State of Nevada sends to E. B. Hancock greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by J. S. Shoemaker as plaintiff in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons, (exclusive of the day of service). If served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover the possession of all certain parcels of land situate in the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, known and described as lots 7 and 8 in block 9 of Evans' North Addition to the town of Reno, county and State aforesaid, together with the building and appurtenances thereon, of which he alleges he was owner and entitled to the possession on the 11th day of November, 1876, and of which you ousted him and ever since withheld his damage, in thus withholding. In the sum of $300, and also to recover the rents and profits thereof in the sum of $500, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

In testimony whereof, I, P. B. Comstock, Clerk of said Court, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, this 2d day of January, A. D. 1878.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Her First Lesson.

You pick her up limp and lifeless as a sack of meal after buckling on the skates which she declares are too large for her, and she stands alone with great exertion, bobbing this way and that, clutching at every form which comes near. Then she asks, "What must I do now?" "Strike out," say you, "like this." And she strikes out and there's one part of the pond which is unsafe henceforth. Then you go back and lift her again, and she laughs and wants to know if she looks awkward and you say, "No," and she says she is sure they are loose and you kneel down and she clutches you by the hair and succeeds in standing with that aid. She laughs all the time and when you let go begins to bob again and down she goes. This time she says, "Oh!" and after that each time she says "ouch" a little louder yet. Then she asks you to just say whether you think she could learn and you say yes and she tries and fails again. Then she looks up and don't laugh any more but asks the time. You give it and she discovers that she ought to have gone long ago. As she leaves the pond she says she never could learn, and it gives her a pain in the side to try, and as she goes home the druggist sells arnica—for her side—in large quantities. That's about the way it goes.

FIRE—About 11 o'clock last night the shrill notes of "48," and the ominous tones of the fire bell, were heard sharp and clear upon the frosty air. The firemen soon had water playing upon the flames so rapidly converting Hoele's barn, hay etc. into black smoke and heat. It is probable that a number of tramps had a comfortable berth in the aforesaid barn, and by accident or otherwise communicated fire to the hay. The fire did its work and the barn, hay and articles stored within the barn were destroyed. Fortunately no wind was blowing at the time, otherwise the residence of Mr. Hoele, the planing mill and other property would in all probability have been consumed. The estimated loss by the fire is placed at $1200 to $1500. The barn was valued at $50, baled hay $200, stored articles etc. $500 more or less. The property was insured for $400. Part of the hay belonged to Mr. Fulmore. Mr. Graff also suffered a light loss, having some cord wood badly damaged. There was no occasion for last night's fire nor the one New Year's Eve, both were set on fire and should those who had a hand in this incendiarism be caught, they would be summarily dealt with.

THE FREMONT PYRAMID.—John J. Dixon, of Reno, writes to inform the Enterprise of error in saying, a few days since, in an article on Pyramid Lake, that it was impossible to reach the top of the Fremont Pyramid. He says: "It was scaled by two men of your city. One of these was Frank W. Dixon, now amalgamator at the Omega tailings mill, and the other James Cranston, carman at the Utah mine. They went to the top of the Pyramid on the 15th day of February, 1877. They were about two hours in getting to the summit of the rock. They saw nothing of the field glass and other things supposed to have been left on the rock by Fremont."

PROFESSIONAL.—Dr. Johnson's card appears in another place. The partnership heretofore existing between himself and Dr. Dawson has terminated. Dr. Johnson will continue the practice as before, and Dr. Dawson will open an office next week in Carson.

Dr. Dawson, pleasantly known to our citizens, informs us that the first part of next week he will leave our town and open an office in Carson. We regret to see the Doctor go, but our loss is Carson's gain. We shall expect to see him back before next Winter.

The Summit Ice Company has commenced the work of cutting ice on Prosser Creek, in the Sierras. Already the ice is fourteen inches thick and there are good prospects for an abundant supply.

W. H. Cantrill, will take the position lately held by Mr. C. Gulling in the public school. Cantrill is a stranger, but we apprehend will prove a very competent instructor.

Jottings.

To-day is the day for passing in bids on county printing and advertising.

Several back yards have been flooded for skating ponds. Skating is all the rage but warm pleasant weather, as to-day, is a little displeasing to the juvenile.

Two civil cases were called to-day in the Justice Court, but both went by default. One was for a wash bill, and the other for money of course.

Social card parties are again popular. They are pleasantly attended.

A. Jose is doing a thriving business bottling beer, porter and cider.

Yesterday afternoon, Julia mining stock was assessed 25 cents per share. Jacket takes in a $2 assessment and Leviathan 25 cents per share.

About 125 persons were on the ice to-day.

There is a mile of good skating at Vista.

Farmers store will have a lot of new style skates to-morrow morning.

A. C. Bragg and C. S. Varian, are in San Francisco.

We hear some complaint of the quality of the gas.

The County Commissioners hold their regular session next Monday.

The Congregational social last evening was a success and still there is more to follow.

QUEEN'S DRUG STORE.—Elsewhere will be found the ad. of Mr. R. E. Queen, who has opened a prescription and family medicine store in the opera building, on Virginia street. Mr. Queen has been in the drug business ten years and learned his profession in the best establishments in the East. He is a young man of recognized probity of character and has, since his residence in our midst, won many excellent friends. Next Monday morning the doors of his drug store will be thrown open for public patronage. Glancing around in his store we found everything necessary for a first-class drug store—a full and assorted stock of medicines, drug, laboratory, toilet articles, etc. Mr. Queen will devote special attention to the accurate and careful filling of all prescriptions. To this end he has a most delicate and accurately adjusted prescription scales. His drugs are from the best houses and, with those which he will manufacture, combined with his many years of most favorable experience, full reliance can be placed on the prescriptions which he fills. One ingenious device to avoid the unpleasant taste of medicines we must also mention: By means of a little press and French wafer the bitter powders are made even palatable. Mr. Queen, for many reasons, will be able to sell his prescriptions for one-third less price than the same may elsewhere be purchased. Medicines and toilet articles he will also sell much below the regular price.

LEND A HAND.—Complaints are justly made that our citizens and especially those who should assist in putting out fire do not volunteer to help work the hand engine. Crowds of men stand and watch the fire, while a small force of faithful men work for hours at the hand engine. This work is very laborious and men should be rested. Everyone is of course anxious to be at the fire, but there should be a stronger desire to put out the fire and save property from being destroyed. Gentlemen, lend the firemen a helping hand, and they will feel like working to save your property, should it ever catch on fire. This labor is for the common good, not alone for those whose property is being consumed by the flames.

EXTRA SESSION.—An extra session of the Legislature is desirable for political and other reasons but we are loth to believe that the ends sought may not be obtained by other means. We are not in possession of sufficient information to warrant us in expressing a decided opinion. All taxpayers of course wish to avoid the heavy expense of an extra session. Such a session as the one which would be held would probably cost the State between $50,000 and $100,000. The present and future financial status of our State was known and attention called to it at the last session of the Legislature. It now appears that our State, to relieve its present awkwardness, is called upon by the State Controller to resort to a remedy at once expensive, and rather to be deplored than sought for.

SUNDAY EVENING LECTURE.—Rev. W. C. Gray will lecture to-morrow evening at the Methodist Church. Subject—"The Use and Abuse of Words." The seats are free and all are invited.

In order to make the skating pond better for the coming week, the boys undertook to flood the pond with the hand engine, but finding that it was too much work for so little sport, they gave up in disgust. Try it again, boys, but next time take the steamer.

OUR SENATORS WIFE.—"Miss Grundy" writes from Washington to the New York Graphic: The wife of the millionaire Senator of Gold Hill, Nevada, is both young and handsome, and on the rare occasions when she has appeared in public since her marriage four years ago, has worn the most elegant toilets and superb diamonds of any lady whose husband sits in the National Legislature. Since the birth of her baby, three years ago, Mrs. Jones' health has not been good, and she has seldom gone to soirees or given entertainments at home. She is now at her husband's beautiful residence on Capitol Hill, whose northern windows command a view of the House wing of the Capitol, and the western windows look upon the city, the river and Arlington Heights—an unsurpassed prospect.

The Origin of the Blaine-Conkling Unpleasantness.

[From a Debate in the House in 1866.]

Mr. Conkling desired to add that no commission, paper or authority whatever was issued to him, except the letter of retainer which had been read. If the member from Maine had the least idea how profoundly indifferent to him his opinion was on the subject he had been discussing, or any other subject, he thought he would hardly take the trouble to express it. He apologized to the House for the length of time he had occupied in consequence of being drawn into the matter by an interruption which he had before denounced to be ungentlemanly and impertinent, and having nothing whatever to do with the matter.

Mr. Blaine said that he knew that this was what they called down East "running emptying". The gentleman from New York could not get off on the technical pretense that he did not hold a commission as Judge Advocate. Many an officer had led a brigade, a division or a corps with no more of a commission than such a one as the gentleman from New York held. As to the gentleman's cruel sarcasm, Mr. Blaine continued: I hope he will let me escape his disdain. His lordly pomposity, his grandiloquent swell, his majestic over-towering, his turkey-gobbler strutting have been so crushing to myself and to all members of the House, that I know it was an act of the grossest temerity on my part to venture on provoking them. But I know who was responsible for it all. I know that for the past five weeks an extra strut has seized the gentleman. It is not his fault, it is the fault of another. That gifted and satirical man, Theodore Tilton, of the New York Independent, was over here spending some weeks and writing home letters, in which among some serious things he put some jocosities, among the cruelest of which was that the mantle of the late Winter Davis had fallen upon the member from New York. He (Conkling) took it as serious, and has since strutted more than usual. Well, the resemblance is great. As striking as Hyperion to a Satyr, Ther-sites to Hercules, mud to marble, a dung-hill to a diamond, a singed cat to a Bengal tiger, a whining puppy to a roaring lion. Shade of the mighty Davis, forgive the almost profanation of that jocosure satire.

He had stayed till the clock hands hung together at eleven, and that valuable recorder of time was menacing a strike. She had yawned till her mouth felt large enough for a horse collar, and yet the young man evinced no symptoms of speedy departure. "I've been working on a motto to-day," she finally said, as she held her eyes open with her fingers; "don't you want to see it?" He said he did. She brought out the article and gave it to him for inspection. He held it up to the light, and read the cheerful sentence: "There's no place like home." The young man guessed he'd be going.

A young lady in a class studying physiology, made answer to a question, that in seven years a human body became changed, so that not a particle which was in it at the commencement of the period would remain at the close of it. "Then, Miss Lillie," said the young tutor, "in seven years you will cease to be Miss Lillie?" "Why, yes, sir; I hope so," said she, very modestly, looking at the floor.

A man with four bullet holes in his body was found near Nashville the other day. A poem entitled "The Beautiful Sn—" was discovered in his pocket, and no attempt was made to apprehend the murdered.

A man named Alfred Tennyson contributes to the Reno Gazette a poem entitled, "New Year's Eve," which possesses considerable merit for newspaper poetry.—Reveille.

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.

So EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS.

It was first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, M. D. De Daince, who manufactured it in jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which make it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. Read the list.

50 Cent Lot.

One Gent's Watch Chain, retail price... $1 00
One pair engraved sleeve buttons, retail price... 75
